

ChemE celebrates its national ranking, outstanding GSIs – 10/2/09

In its latest rankings of graduate chemical engineering programs, U.S. News and World Report magazine has ranked Berkeley's Department of Chemical Engineering second nationally, behind first-place MIT but ahead of Caltech in third.

<http://grad-schools.usnews.rankingsandreviews.com/best-graduate-schools/top-engineering-schools/chemical-engineering>

In addition, ChemE graduate students and current LSAC members Rajamani Gounder and Jarred Ghilarducci have received the Dow Excellence in Teaching Award from Dow Chemical Company representative David Parks. The Dow award includes a cash prize.